A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and dependency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidney, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain."

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectora-tion easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At all druggists.—W. T.
Brooks.

TYNER AND BARRETT.

Acquitted of the Charge of Conspiracy in Postal Scandal.

Gen. Tyner Broke Down Completely and Several of the Jurors Wept With Him and All Shook
His Hand.

Washington, May 26.—Within 23 minutes of the retirement of the jury in the case of James N. Tyner and Harrison J. Barrett, tried on charge of conspiracy in connection with their duties as law officers of the post office department, a verdict of not guilty was returned. The throng which filled the courtroom throughout the arguments to the jury hardly had time to leave the building before the jury was back and the foreman announced that a verdict had been reached. Gen. Tyner, expecting a longer wait, had been wheeled from the room and his nephew and co-defendant hastened to give an order that caused him to return immediately.

Gen. Tyner appeared greatly excited as he attempted to face the jury and when the verdict was returned he broke down completely. Several of the jurors wept with him and all of them shook hands with him.

The Tyner-Barrett case was begun on May 2, and has been before the court 19 full days. A great mass of testimony was offered. The prosecution brought forward an army of witnesses, a majority of whom were former officers of bond investment companies, through which Harrison J. Barrett, the junior defendant, was alleged to have profited after he left the post office department by practicing before his uncle who remained in the department.

The principal arguments made Wednesday were by A. S. Worthington for the defense and Maj. Holmes Conrad, special counsel for the government, for the prosecution. The latter directed his efforts almost entirely to an attempt to counteract any influence on the jurors' verdict which might result from sympathy for Gen. Tyner. He told the jury that they had no right to entertain sympathy for Gen. Tyner or the young wife of Mr. Barrett, who was a witness in the defendant's behalf.

Judge Pritchard's charge to the jury was long. He had granted a number of the prayers offered by counsel on both sides and in addition his own charge covered a dozen typewritten pages. Among other things he told the jury that it had had an opportunity to observe the conduct of all of the witnesses and could take into consideration any interest they may have had in giving their testimony. He called like attention to the testimony of the defendants and the weight that should be attracted to their statements.
The court said in conclusion that the jury might find the defendants guilty as to each count charged in the indictment or acquit them as to one count, and find them guilty as to the other or return a verdict of not guilty on both counts. Judge Pritchard emphasized the fact that the jury should not be influenced by prejudice on the one hand, nor sympathy on the other, and said the case should be tried solely on its merits and without regard to what the effect the verdict might have on the public mind. He gave a definition of conspiracy and made plain the meaning of "reasonable doubt."

THE KIDNAPED AMERICAN.

Little Progress Made in the Attempt to Secure His Release.

Washington, May 26.—Consul Gum-more reports little progress in the attempt to secure the release of the American, Perdicaris, who was kidnaped from his country home near Tangier last week. In a cablegram received from him at the state department Wednesday the consul says:

"Situation at Tangier is not reassuring. The sultan has sent strong orders to the authorities to act in accordance with the directions of the British minister and myself. The negotiations are proceeding in a highly unsatisfactory manner though the sultan appears to be trying to stimulate the local officials to active efforts."

CONVICTED BANK PRESIDENT.

His Counsel Withdrew Motion For Certificate of Reasonable Doubt.

New York, May 26.—David Rothschild, who was convicted of grand larceny in connection with the Federal Bank failure and sentenced to serve nine years in state's prison, Wednesday instructed his attorneys to withdraw their motion for a certificate of reasonable doubt. Assistant District Attorney Sandford announced after Rothschild's conviction that if the former bank president made a fight he would immediately call to trial other indictments now pending against him and it is said that Rothschild has concluded not to invite this action but to begin serving his sentence at once.

Treaty of Extradition Signed.

Panama, May 26.—A treaty between the United States and Panama for the extradition of fugitives from justice was signed by William W. Russell, United States charge d'affaires, and Senor De la Esprilla, minister of foreign relations.

The Panama Bonds.

Washington, May 26.—The secretary of the treasury has ordered the plates prepared for printing the Panama bonds. The secretary has ordered the portrait of the late Senator Marcus A.
Hanna printed thereon.
